

4-H IN ACTION/ HERDSMANSHIP;

STILL LIFE 4-H HALL DEPARTMENT 4

Superintendent: LeAnna McMahan
360-497-3521

REQUIREMENTS:

- A. Open to any Lewis County 4-H Club
- B. What will you do?
 - 1. Help to tell the fair-going public about 4-H and the 4-H Department of the Southwest Washington Fair.
 - 2. Participants will be assigned an area in the 4-H Exhibit Building or any place where 4-H exhibits or activities are taking place.
 - 3. Special identification (furnished by 4-H Department) will be worn during the time participant is on duty.
- C. Registration for this activity must be done on still life entry days only.
- D. 4-H in Action is defined as a pre-approved activity (through the Extension office) that invites the public to participate.
- E. This activity is judged and does Award premium points.
- F. Still life 4-H Hall herdsmanship includes talking to the public and helping to support and maintain exhibits, plants, etc. The hours are 10 AM to 8 PM.
- G. One entry per class.

DIVISION:

- A. 4-H Club - Herdsmanship
- B. Individual – 4-H in Action (includes Sew-In)
- C. Team – 4-H in Action
- D. Cloverbud (NON-Premium Class)

CLASS:

	POINTS ALLOWED
	Blue	Red	White
1. Min. 2 hour – 4-H in Action.....	15	8	4
2. Min. 4 hour – 4-H in Action.....	30	15	8
3. Still Life Building Club Herdsmanship.....	30	20	10
(min. 8 hours over the week)			