GENERAL RULES AND ENTRY INFORMATION

4-H DEPARTMENT:

NOTE: ALL 4-H DEPARTMENT EXHIBITORS SHALL OBSERVE THE GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS OF THE SOUTHWEST WASHINGTON FAIR AS SET FORTH IN THE PREMIUM LIST EXCEPT WHERE MODIFIED UNDER THESE DEPARTMENTS OR DIVISION RULES. WHEN RULES CAN NOT BE DETERMINED UNDER DEPARTMENT OR DIVISION THE WASHINGTON STATE 4-H POLICY GUIDELINE WILL BE USED.

- A. This department welcomes participation of youth who wish to exhibit their current year's 4-H projects as stipulated below:
  1. Enrolled in the Lewis County 4-H Program between Oct. 1, previous year and April 1, of current year.
  2. Enrolled in 4-H programs supervised by Extension of a Washington County other than Lewis except divisions restricted to Lewis County 4-H'ers: Public presentations; Record Books; 4-H in Action; Fashion Revue; All Foods Activities; Horse; Swine; Rabbit; Dog, Cavy, and Beef.
  3. If the Exhibitor has special needs that should be taken into consideration, the division superintendent needs to be notified by the parent/leader.
- B. The Southwest Washington Fair will be the ONLY qualifying fair for Lewis County 4-H members for State Fair eligibility.
- C. Only items for which there are classes and divisions listed will be eligible for exhibits and premiums.
- D. Exhibits must represent current 4-H year projects and may not have received grades in school, other youth organizations or classes.
- E. 4-H Exhibitors may not exhibit same articles in FFA Department or vice versa.
- F. Check division regulations for entries per division and class.
- G. Primary Members (Kindergarten through 2nd Grade) may enter exhibits on a non-competitive basis.
- H. Exhibitors divided as follows:
  1. Cloverbud –completed K, 1st, or 2nd grade. *This is a non-premium exhibit.
  2. Juniors – completed 3rd, 4th or 5th grade
  3. Intermediates – completed 6th, 7th or 8th grade
  4. Seniors – completed the 9th grade and have not passed their 19th birthday on January 1, of current year.
- I. Online entries must contain assigned exhibitor number and name. County 4-H'ers are notified after April 1 of their exhibitor number. Out of county exhibitors must obtain an exhibitor number from the Lewis County 4-H Office. Failure to use assigned exhibitor number may result in incorrect premiums or no premiums.
- J. Exhibitors must participate in fitting and showing in their respective animal science division or premiums will not be paid and the exhibitor's animal will not be eligible for any further classes in that division. YOU MUST SHOW YOUR OWN ANIMAL IN FITTING & SHOWING.
- K. Exhibitors may not remove exhibit(s) before official closing time (without prior arrangement or release by Superintendent) as stated in general rules. If exhibits are removed early premiums will be forfeited as will ribbons. Exhibitor will also not be allowed to compete at the state fair.
- L. Contests and exhibits will be judged according to the Washington State University Scorecards. Group placing of blue, red and white will be made - (Group, or Danish Judging System). No exhibit deemed unworthy shall be awarded a placing; the judge's decision is final.
- M. Exhibitors will receive cash premium for each point earned. Points are stated under each department. The value per point is dependent upon the grand total of points awarded in the 4-H Department and the premium budget allocated to the 4-H Department by the Southwest Washington Fair.
- N. 4-H exhibits are entered and displayed at the risk of the exhibitor. The Southwest Washington Fair, Washington State University and Lewis County Extension cannot accept responsibility for loss or damage. Exhibits of great sentimental and/or monetary value should be reconsidered by entrant due to the possible hazards of large crowds, the arrangement of the buildings in which the displays are housed, and the great number of exhibits.
- O. No dogs allowed in barns.

ANIMAL SCIENCE DIVISIONS STATE 4-H FAIR POLICY

In accordance with State 4-H Fair Policy at the Southwest Washington Fair, the following statements must be adhered to by 4-H exhibitors.

- A. The use of illegal drugs and/or the improper use of animal health products or foreign substances will not be tolerated in the WSU 4-H Youth Development Program. Extension personnel, 4-H volunteers, families, youth and fair/show officials have a legal and moral obligation not to misuse these products. We have the responsibility to tell others not to use these substances and to report those who do use any illegal substances. The administration of any drug or medication which could affect an animal's performance resulting in an unfair advantage or the disposition of the animal is unacceptable. Additionally, there are federal penalties for using illegal substances in animals that are going into the nation's food supply.

- B. All 4-H members who exhibit animal projects shall be responsible for the humane care and showmanship of their animal. Failure to comply may result in dismissal from the fair exhibit and forfeiture of all premiums.

ANIMAL EXHIBIT ENTRIES

PLEASE NOTE: "For Sale" signs are not to be displayed on any livestock exhibitor stall.

- A. All exhibits must be entered using the Southwest Washington Fair online entry system (<http://southwestwashingtonfair.org/exhibits/entries/4-h-entries/>). If any entry cannot be made via the online entry system, contact the department superintendent for assistance. Bring a copy of your confirmation e-mail(s) on entry day.

4-H sheep and dairy goats from Monday through Thursday. 4-H breeding sheep and goats will be released at 6 PM on Thursday. Market sheep and goats remain on the grounds until Sunday; however may be moved to different pens. 4-H and FFA animals entered also in open class may remain but will be asked to move their animals to a different pen and remove all 4-H paraphernalia.

Rules for Entering Exhibits in Open Class Departments – Beef, Dairy, Dairy Goats, Sheep.

- A. Exhibitors must meet Open Class entry requirements. Make certain the Department, Division and Class numbers as stated in Open Class Departments are used in making out Open Class Entry Forms.
- B. 4-H Livestock exhibitor's first and major show responsibility is to the respective 4-H departments and all animals so entered must be housed there except in hardship cases when a request to the respective department heads could receive approval.
- C. Exhibitors are responsible to check in their animals and registry papers with the Open Class department heads when and where requested.
- D. Exhibits will be shown and judged as listed in the Open Class Departments and will receive premiums and awards from those departments.

4-H Department Entry Limitations

- A. Out of county exhibitors will be assigned an exhibitor # following receipt of their entry form by 4-H Office.
- B. Exhibitor must stay within the allowed number of entries. If the exhibitor enters more than the allowed number, the last exhibits to be judged will be disqualified.
- C. If more animal exhibits are allowed, club leaders will be notified prior to fair dates.
- D. Stall or pen assignments are made on the basis of entries due July 18. Final stall and pen assignments are not made until 8 PM on haul in day, per species. Number of animals allowed may be further limited to allow Lewis County 4-H'ers to exhibit. Out-of-county 4-H exhibitors will be notified by August 1 of their acceptance or rejection.

- E. The JT Alexander barn stalls will be divided equally between 4-H beef and dairy exhibits.
- F. When Lewis County entries exceed species space limitation, the department superintendent will determine final stalling by reducing number of animals allowed by each exhibitor.

Judging Contest Rules

- A. Exhibitor number must be completed on contest registration card made out at time of contest.
- B. Participants must be enrolled in the project related to the contest.
- C. Judging must be on individual basis.
