FAIR AND RODEO APPEARANCES:

The contestant will be available for appearances on behalf of the Lewis County Rodeo, and be prepared for autograph signings, photographs, and media interview opportunities to promote the Lewis County Rodeo, the sport of rodeo, and the agricultural industry as a whole. Any rodeo attended as a queen during the year of her reign will be done as Miss Lewis County Rodeo Queen unless prior permission is given.

CONTEST DETAILS:

Transparency of Scores: Score sheets and judges' notes will be released two weeks after the coronation.

Scoring Breakdown:

- Horsemanship 25%
- Appearance/Personality 25%
- Speech 25%
- Rodeo Knowledge Test 25%

Rodeo Knowledge Test:

A Rodeo Knowledge Test will be given. Questions on the test will include questions regarding information about the Lewis County Rodeo, who is NPRA and questions about NPRA, tack, horse science, professional rodeo history, rodeo terminology, explanation of standard events, current issues of the pro rodeo circuit.

Horsemanship:

All contestants will compete in Horsemanship. Each contestant will be allowed ONE chaperone in the staging area of the arena at Horsemanship. All other guests can be seated in the bleachers away from the judges. Contestants failing to exhibit control over their horse at any time will be removed from this phase of competition for the safety of all participants.

Contestants will ride their pattern, which will be provided beforehand, and then ride to the judges to be asked 2 questions prepared by the judges regarding their knowledge of horses, the horse industry, and/or their personal background dealing with horses. Contestants will be judged on their riding skills, abilities, posture, smile, etc., details of the pattern, their response to questions and the cleanliness/appearance of themselves and their horse and tack.

Contestants will perform a "run in" during the nightly performance each night of the rodeo.

Appearance/Q&A:

This will be a "fashion show" with the possibility of modeling on stage. Your outfit should be classy, classic, western attire. Judges will want to see how well the contestant wears their clothing. They will look for good fit and their confidence and positivity as well as their personality overall while modeling. Contestants should be able to introduce themselves by giving their name, age, interests and activities and other information on a microphone. Following the contestant's self-introduction, they will be asked 1 impromptu question.

Interviews/Personality

All contestants attire will be judged and scored at Interview as part of Appearance total score.

Contestants will have a personal and private interview with Judges. Judges will ask questions and have a conversation with each contestant regarding Rodeo, horses, personal interests, and activities, etc.

Interviews will last approximately 10 minutes.

Speech: The contestant should prepare and memorize a speech about what the “Western Way of Life” means to her. The speech must be 2 minutes long. The contestant will be allowed to a 5 second window each direction but any variance over/under will be cause for point deductions

Scoring Ties: Ties in individual categories will be broken by referring to Judge #1’s score, followed by Judge #2’s then Judge #3’s score if needed.

Overall Scoring Tie: Ties for the title or first runner-up are broken by horsemanship scores.

Miss Congeniality: Selected by contestant vote and does not count towards overall points.

Horsemanship Award: Will be awarded to the contestant with the highest Horsemanship score.

Knowledge Test Award: Will be awarded to the contestant with the highest Test score.

Boyfriend Conduct Clause:

As a contestant and potential titleholder of the Lewis County Rodeo Queen Pageant, I acknowledge and agree to the following stipulations regarding the involvement and conduct of a boyfriend during my participation in the pageant and potential reign:

1. No Chaperone Role: Boyfriends are not to be considered as chaperones at any pageant events, activities, or appearances. The role of a chaperone is reserved strictly for designated individuals appointed by the Pageant Committee.
2. No Public Display of Affection: I agree to maintain a professional demeanor at all times during official events and appearances. This includes abstaining from any public displays of affection (PDA) with a boyfriend, as such behavior is not in alignment with the professional standards expected of a titleholder.
3. No Special Treatment: Boyfriends will not receive special treatment, privileges, or access during pageant events or activities. Their involvement and presence will be subject to the same guidelines and restrictions applicable to the general public or other guests.
4. Not Considered a Plus One: For events where a “plus one” is applicable, boyfriends are not automatically granted this status. Invitations for additional guests, including boyfriends, will be at the discretion of the Pageant Committee and based on the specific event’s guidelines.
5. Professional Conduct Expectations: I understand that my conduct as well as the conduct of those closely associated with me, reflects on the Lewis County Rodeo Queen. I will ensure that my boyfriend, if present at events, adheres to the standards of behavior and professionalism expected by the Pageant Committee.

By agreeing to these terms, I am committing to upholding the integrity and professionalism of the Lewis County Rodeo Queen Pageant, both in my personal conduct and in the conduct of those associated with me.
